

Dear Suppliers,

Please put additional attention to Quality of products shipped to PWR in regards to visual appearance.

Here is remainder of visual defects categories:

- nicks, dents, scratches,
- sharp edges, burrs
- toolmarks, mismatches
- coatings condition: incomplete coating, blisters, flaking, pits

For visual inspection of parts, final customer specifications shall be used according to purchase order requirements, drawing and additional specifications e.g. surface treatment, coating etc.

PWR Instruction 150 para 7.5.5 shall be applied in order to utilize protective approach to parts during production process and shipment.

To protect parts from in-process damages and metal to metal contact, production process shall be planned with regards to visual inspection at given stages, handling and shipment process.

In a case of PWR issued Escape caused by visual defects, additional visual inspection is required for next shipments until parts are 100% conforming.